LOCAL DEMOCRATIC CAMPAIGN COMES TO CLOSE

With speaking at several points in the county, and the address of Major Samuel M. Wilson, at the court house yesterday afternoon, the Democratic campaign in Bourbon county came to a close. Judge Denis Dundon and Mrs. Wm. G. Talbott addressed the voters of the Shawhan precinct, at Shawhan, Saturday night, Major Wilson spoke to a large audience of enthusiastic Democrats, men and women, at the court house yesterday afternoon, and Judge Geo. Battered and County Attorney D. D. Cline addressed a large audience at Jacktown last night, winding up the speaking part of the campaign. To-day the battle of ballots is on in earnest. From six this morning to four this afternoon the workers, both men and women, will be busy for both parties.

The campaign for the election of the Democratic National ticket, headed by the distinguished statesmen, Gov. James M. Cox and Franklin D. Roosevelt, was waged in this city and county without display of red fire, fireworks, brass bands or any other form of noisy demonstration. All the Democratic leaders have done excellent work. We desire to especially commend the Democratic County Campaign Chairman, Will G. McClintock and Mrs. Wm. G. Talbott, chairman of the women workers, and their able corps of assistants. They were busy day and night in the work of organization and education of voters, especially the women, to whom the business of voting came as a trial, to some extent. When the vote of Bourbon county is counted to-night the fruits be apparent to all. Great enthusiasm was aroused among the voters throughout the county on account of the organization built up by the men and women back of this work for the ticket.

THE NEWS took some part in the campaign. It advocated the election of the Democratic ticket from top to bottom, as it has always done. It did this from principle, and for no other reason. And we feel immensely satisfied with our part in the great struggle.

The speakers who went out to address the voters always found large crowds to address, and these crowds went away from the speakers well pleased and ready to do battle for Democratic principles and party success at the opening of the polls this morning.

The good women of the city and county, hundreds of whom will vote to-day for the first time, are aroused as never before in any previous election, and it is safe to say that ninety-five per cent. of the women of Bourbon county will vote at the election booths to-day, and that their votes will help to roll up the biggest Democratic majority Bourbon county ever gave. This is the most important election since 1860, and the issues are far-reaching in their importance to the State and Nation.

MANAGERS OF CAMPAIGNS SEE PARTY VICTORY

John L. Grayot, Democratic State Campaign Manager, said Saturday night:

"Kentucky on November 2 will give a majority for Governor Cox and Franklin Roosevelt and Senator Beckham that will not be less than 40,000 and may go to 60,000."

"I want to warn the people of Kentucky to be on their guard against circulars, letters and affidavits appearing on the eve of the election, reflecting in any way on the Democratic candidates, or their position on any question."

The Republican ticket victorious by 21,000 in Kentucky is the claim of Chesley H. Searcy, State Campaign Chairman, who directed the G. O. P. forces in 1919 also.

Mr. Searcy would make no announcement of districts in which he expects a victory other than the Fifth, Tenth and Eleventh, although he declared that the representation in Congress, which is now four, would be increased.

"I am convinced now that this is a conservative estimate, very conservative," he said Saturday afternoon.

DEMOCRATS, DO YOUR DUTY TO-DAY.

Bourbon county Democrats must do their duty to-day at the polls. The good women of the city and county will come to the rescue. They will help to roll up a big old-time Democratic majority in the county, and forever still the Republican cry that the Democratic majority is falling off. Remember, the polls are open from six a. m. to four p. m. Vote early!

importance to the State and Nation. The battle is good as won, but let no voter stay away from the polls. Take part in this great contest for the presentation of our common country and for the perpetuation of its free institutions. Democrats of Bourbon county, go to the polls to-day and stamp your X under the rooster, and go home secure in the consciousness of a duty well and faithfully done.

FINAL APPEAL ON EVE OF ELECTION.

This issue of THE NEWS is put to press on Monday night, dated Tuesday, November 2. We would be recreant to our duty as a Democrat, false to our conception of the duty of an honest newspaper if we did not in this issue, on the eve of the election, urge our Democratic friends and all our readers, of whatever faith or creed, politically or religiously, to go to the polling places to-day and vote for the Democratic State, National and district ticket.

To our minds, America is to-day facing a crisis. Misrepresentation and abuse of President Woodrow Wilson, whose health was broken down in the service of his country as much as the health of the soldiers on the firing line in France was broken by the hardships they suffered, have featured the Republican campaign. The man to whom all paid homage less than two years ago as the leader of the Allied hosts, which has crushed the menace of world autocracy, has, in the eyes of the Republicans, suddenly become in himself a threat to the liberty of the world. Of course they do not feel the way they say they do about President Wilson. Of course they haven't any fear that American soldiers would ever be sent to Europe under Article X, or any other provision of the League of Nations. All that is balderdash for campaign purposes alone. It is to prevent the people regaining control of the United States Senate, which President Wilson warned them two years ago not to turn over to the reactionary Republican machine.

The Republicans ask us if we want "our boys" sent over to Europe, to fight in a foreign war, in warning us against Article X. They seem to have forgotten that our soldiers were sent to Europe, and were in Europe less than two years ago, and are in Europe right now, for that matter, without any League of Nations figuring in it. That has been about the only issue presented, or rather, misrepresented, by the Republicans in this campaign.

There are others the voters should not lose sight of. The laborer, skilled and unskilled, might stop to compare his wages now with the wages in 1912, when a Republican administration was in power. The farmer might well stop to consider the prices he is receiving now for his products and what he was paid for them eight years ago, before Woodrow Wilson was elected President. American business might well stop to consider whether it wants to plunge this country into another period of uncertainty due to Republican plans for revision of the tariff and the placing of that question back in partisan politics from which the Democrats removed it. And every citizen, whatever his trade, profession or occupation, might well stop to consider if he wants America to be put in the position where she refuses to "keep faith with those who died on Flanders field."

Not only the honor of America, but her prosperity and her future standing among the nations of the earth hang upon the decision of her people at the polls to-day. And the Democrats of Bourbon county should decide wisely their part in the general result. It is up to them. Every vote must be brought out and polled to-day. And to James M. Cox and Franklin D. Roosevelt may the victory be awarded!

A PROTEST FROM THE CITIZENS OF MILLERSBURG

We, the citizens of Millersburg, wish to enter our protest against the unkind and damaging misrepresentations which have been recently circulated against our fellowtownsman, Mr. Albert Moffett, in regard to the local school situation. Millersburg's greatest asset is her schools. Mr. Moffett, a business man of unusual clearness of vision and integrity of character, realizing this, has worked with untiring energy to uphold our schools. He has been interested not only in the welfare of the private schools, which have been in the community for over fifty years, but he has also supported every move for the betterment of the public schools. Mr. Moffett is emphatically not opposed to any school or schools but on the contrary stands ready to aid in the upbuilding and increase the efficiency of all the schools of the town. Mr. Moffett is one of our most public spirited citizens who will continue to give unsparingly of his time, thought and energy to further the cause of education, of all the schools through out the county.

TELEGRAM TO CHAIRMAN THOMASON FROM REPUBLICAN STATE CHAIRMAN

W. A. Thomason, Chairman of the Republican County Committee, Paris, Ky., has received the following telegram:

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 28, 1920.
W. A. Thomason, Paris, Ky.

The culmination of the Democratic campaign falsehood and appeal to prejudice has come in the circulation of outrageous misrepresentation of Warren G. Harding. Senator Harding's life, private and public, has been under the closest scrutiny of the people of his home State since his birth. They know him and all his connection. He is beloved and respected by his neighbors. The people of his home State, home town, have twice elected him to the Legislature. The people of Ohio elected him their Lieutenant Governor and State in the United States Senate by more than 700,000 majority. Under the searching scrutiny of the public during this long career he has thus emerged an honored and beloved citizen. The base appeals which are being brought out at this last hour of the Democratic campaign of misrepresentation are denounced by the Republican State Committee as common falsehoods. Persons guilty of circulating these libelous statements are as responsible under the law as those who originated them and the Republican State Committee desires information that will lead to prosecution.

CHARLES H. SEARCY.
Chairman State Campaign Committee.

READJUSTMENT SALE OF OUR ENTIRE STOCK OF MEN'S AND WOMEN'S FALL SHOES

To meet the public demand for cheaper shoes we have decided to make big reductions in our Fall and Winter Shoes for Men and Women.

In the past few weeks there has been a drop in the leather market, and, while our stock was bought at prevailing high prices we are willing to sacrifice our profits to give you cheaper shoes.

You cheerfully paid the price while they were going up and we think you are entitled to any reductions that may occur.

The small margin of profit we are asking will not allow us to make any charges, so this sale will be for CASH ONLY.

FORMER PARISIANS MAKE BAD POLICE RECORD

Paris people will recall with varying degrees of emotions, the time when Jimmie Ward and his family were residents of this city. Trouble began early in the lives of the Ward boys, who were always having "something doing." It was a cold day in August when the Paris police were not called to settle with "Jimmie Ward's boys." Their mischievous activities knew no bounds, and they respected neither persons or property. A recent issue of the Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune gives a review of later-day events in the history of the Ward boys after they left Paris and settled in Covington. The Tribune says:

"When the cell door was locked behind Mike Ward, 33 years old, who shot and killed Thos. Mahoney, 60 years old, Ironton, O., in Jos. Jensen's saloon, Pike and Russell streets, Covington, on Wednesday night, Covington police said they believed they had succeeded in rounding up the last of the Wards, a family of five brothers, whose deeds have been recorded on police registers in all the large cities of Kentucky during the last twenty years."

"The five brothers were known to detectives and the underworld of Northern Kentucky cities as the 'Kentucky James Boys.' Mike, the prisoner, and his brother, Owen, who was killed in an attempted robbery in Kansas several years ago, were regarded as the most desperate of the quintet."

"Ward, 33 years old, was born in Paris, Ky., and came to Covington with his parents when a small boy. Other brothers, John, Owen, James and Edward, also at an early age, drew the attention of the police."

"About five years ago a former patrolman, Marty O'Herron, who was a private watchman in the residential district of Wallace avenue, Covington, was shot and killed. Later the Kenton county grand jury returned an indictment against John and Owen Ward, charging them with the murder of O'Herron."

"Both men suddenly disappeared from their haunts in Covington. Two years later Owen Ward was killed by the Kansas City police while staging a restaurant holdup in that city. The police have lost track of John Ward. The other two brothers, Edward and James, disappeared a number of years ago, and the police believe they are dead."

VOTE EARLY TO DAY.

Vote early as possible to-day. The polls will be crowded, owing to the large number of women voters, to whom the process will be new, and those going late may not be able to get in. Vote as early as you can. The pressure of work on the clerks in the booths will be great.
